

Lyrics:

A lovely dream, I had last night
The Bais Hamikdash was standing upright Kohanim offering Karbanos Leviyim singing Shir Hamaalos, Moshe Rabainu learning with the Avos Sanhedrin seated at a Din Torah Aharon HaKohen lights up the menorah

And suddenly I see a countenance Divine suffused with a holy glowing shine on His head a crown of gold and then I behold,

This is the Melech HaMoshiach, it is he,
the entire nation stands in fear, the Torah secrets revealed so clear, and just then, I awake, from my sleep

CHORUS:

Oh, don't you worry sisters! In a minute, this won't be a dream

Start rolling out the carpet; Moshiach's coming grab your Tambourines

Prepare for the day; he is on the way

We'll all soon be home to remain,

Oh together we'll be, our whole family

אמן ואמן!

A lovely dream I had, last night to Yerushalayim, I arrived, She said welcome to this Holy place, its so very good to see your face, after you were exiled in disgrace, and you have wandered thousands of years, today my child, your beautified through tears

And suddenly I see, angels rush through, they escort in song HaKadosh Baruch Hu descended to this world a chuppah gets unfurled,
The lovely bride at his side, is every Jew Tzaddikim dancing with the chosson, partaking of the Seduas Livyasan,
and just then I awake from my sleep.
